

The NAB should mind their own business. XM satellite radio is providing a service that I can't live without, and can't find anywhere else. I am one of the MANY devoted XM subscribers who requested XM to come up with the traffic/weather station in the first place.